1 Information we collect

Julie SLT Ltd holds personal data as part of conducting a professional service. The data follows under the following headings: healthcare records, educational records, clinical records, general administrative records, and financial records.

1.1 Healthcare records

A healthcare record refers to all information collected, processed and held both in manual and electronic formats pertaining to the service user and their care. Speech and language problems can be complex, and a wide range of information may be collected in order to best meet the needs of the client, and to maintain a high quality service which meets best practice requirements. In order to provide a high quality service, a range of information may be collected.

Examples of data collected and held on all current and active clients include the following:

- Contact details: Name, address, phone numbers, e-mail address
- Personal details: date of birth

- Other contacts: name and contact details of GP and any other relevant healthcare professionals involved.

For child services:

- Parent/guardian details
- Description of family
- Educational placements.
- Pre- and post-natal history: This can include information relating to mother's pregnancy, and child's birth.
- Developmental data: developmental milestones, feeding history, audiology history.
- Medical details: such as any relevant illnesses, medications, and relevant family history. Reports from other relevant allied health professionals such as: Audiology, Psychology, CAMHS (Child & Adolescent Mental Health Services), Occupational therapy, Physiotherapy, Ophthalmology.

1.2 Educational records

Relevant Individual Educational Plans (IEPs), progress notes from educational staff and school reports may be held.

1.3 Clinical records

Specific data in relation to communication skills may be collected and held, such as assessment forms, reports, case notes, e-mails, text messages and transcripts of phone. Audio and video files may also be collected and stored.

1.4 General administrative records

Julie SLT Ltd may hold information regarding attendance reports and accident report forms.

1.5 Financial records

A financial record pertains to all financial information concerning the practice, e.g. invoices, receipts, information for HMRC. Julie SLT Ltd may hold data in relation to: bank details, receipts and invoices. Information will include name of bill payer, client initials, address and record of invoices and payments made.

2 Where we get our information

Personal data will be provided by the client, or in the case of a child (under 16 years), their parent(s)/guardian(s). This information will be collected as part of a case history form prior to, or on the date of first contact.

Information may also be provided directly from relevant third parties such as schools, medical professionals and allied health professionals, with prior consent from the parent(s)/guardian(s).

3 How we use the information that we collect

We use the information we collect to provide assessment and therapy as per the relevant professional guidelines, as well as to maintain the general running of the business, such as running our booking system, keeping our accounts and updating you of any changes in policies or fees.

Information may also be used for research purposes, with the written consent of the client or parent/guardian.

3.1 Data retention periods

The retention periods are the suggested time periods for which the records should be held based on the organisation's needs, legal and/or fiscal precedence or historical purposes. Following the retention deadline, all data will be destroyed under confidential means.

3.2 Client Records

3.2.1 Clinical Records

Julie SLT Ltd keeps both physical and electronic records of clinical data in order to provide a service.

- The preferred format for clinical data is paper and electronic
- Clinical data is deleted/confidentially destroyed within 3 months after the child's 25th birthday to fulfil legal and professional obligations for the defence of a possible civil claim
- Video records/ voice recordings relating to client care/videoconferencing records may be recorded with consent, analysed and then destroyed. If written consent is provided to use recordings for training purposes, the client will have the option to withdraw consent at any time.

3.2.2 Financial Records

Julie SLT Ltd keeps electronic/paper records of financial data from those who use our services.

- Financial Data is kept for 6 years to adhere to HMRC guidelines.
- Financial Data (including non-payment of bills) can be given to HMRC at HMRC's request.

3.2.3 Contact Data

Contact Data is kept for 6 years to allow processing of Financial Data if required. (This may be retained for longer for safety, legal request, or child protection reasons.)

3.3 Exceptions

5 How and when we obtain consent

Prior to initial assessment or consultation, a copy of the data protection policy will be provided to clients along with a client contract. A consent form will need to be signed by the client prior to commencing the service.

Should a client wish to withdraw their consent for data to be processed, they can do so by contacting Julie SLT Ltd.

6 How we protect your data

In accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), we will endeavour to protect your personal data in a number of ways:

6.1 By limiting the data that we collect in the first instance

All data collected by us will be collected solely for the purposes set out at 1 above and will be collected for specified, explicit and legal purposes. The data will not be processed any further in a manner that is incompatible with those purposes save in the special circumstances referred to in section 5.1. Furthermore, all data collected by us will be adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which it is collected which include, inter alia, the assessment, diagnosis and treatment of speech, language and communication disorders.

6.2 By transmitting the data in certain specified circumstances only

Data will only be share and transmitted, be it on paper or electronically, only as is required, and as set out in section 3.

6.3 By keeping only the data that is required

when it is required and by limiting its accessibility to any other third parties.

6.4 By disposing of/destroying the data once the individual has ceased receiving treatment within 3 months of the child's 25th birthday of the completion of this treatment apart from the special categories of personal data as set out at 1.1 above. Where data is required to be held by us for longer, we will put in place appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk. These may include measures such as the encryption of electronic devices, pseudonymisation of personal data, and/or safe and secure storage facilities for paper/electronic records.

6.5 By retaining the data for only as long as is required which in this case is up to the child's 25th birthday except for circumstances in which retention of data is required in circumstances set out at part 1.1 above or in certain specific circumstances as set out at Article 23(1) of the GDPR.

6.6 By destroying the data securely and confidentially after the period of retention has elapsed.

This could include the use of confidential shredding facilities or, if requested by the individual, the return of personal records to the individual.

6.7 By ensuring that any personal data collected and retained is both accurate and up-to-date.

7 Protecting your Rights to Data

7.1 Adult clients

Adults have the right to request data held on them as per article 15 of GDPR. A request must be made in writing. Further information regarding accessing your personal data are available in the document 'Rights of Individuals under the General Data Protection Regulation', downloadable from: www.gdprandyou.ie
